MEDICINAL.

EYES SPEAK

Volumes, at times, of woman's happiness or misery. The dull, sunken eye, with its dark circles almost surely speaks of womanly health, and its attendant suffering. With the dull eye goes usually the shallow, sunken cheek, the drawn mouth, the shrunken form—the whole glory of woman's beauty marred by the effects of disease.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the diseases which undermine the health and mar the beauty of women. It establishes regularity, dries weakening discharges, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free, and so obtain the advice of a specialist upon their disease. All correspondence is strictly private and confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"With pleasure I send a few lines to let you know that I feel much better than for eight years before taking your medicine," writes Mrs. Pierce of the West Philadelphia, Pa. "I will recommend Dr. Pierce's medicine to every person who may be troubled with female weakness, and I began to think I would never be well. If I had continued the treatment prescribed by my doctor I don't know what would have become of me. When your treatment was commenced my weight was 100 pounds, at present it is 130. Have healthy color and my friends say I look well. My best thanks to you and my best wishes, too, for what you have done for me."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cleanse the clogged system from accumulated impurities.

CATARRH

Nothing but a local remedy or change of climate will cure Catarrh. The specific is Ely's Cream Balm. It is quickly absorbed. Gives relief at once. Opens and cleanses the nasal passages. Alleviates inflammation. Heals and protects the membrane. Removes the source of taste and smell. No Mercury. No Injurious Drugs. Regular size, 50 cents; Family Size, $1.00, at Druggists, or by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Many physicians are now prescribing Kodol Dyspepsia Cure regularly having found that it is the best preparation that can be written because it is the one preparation which contains the elements necessary to digest not only some kinds of food but all kinds and it therefore cures indigestion and dyspepsia no matter what its cause. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

MRS. ROOSEVELT.

A dispatch from Washington says: When Mrs. Roosevelt was here as the wife of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy she was one of the most retiring women in the official set. Her entire time was devoted to her young family, and she participated in the social functions only when her presence was absolutely demanded. Her friends say that now, as the wife of the Chief Executive of the nation, she will not yield to this well-known love of quiet, but will be fully equal to the demands of her high station.

The Roosevelt connection is aristocratic in all its ramifications, and Mrs. Roosevelt, who was before her marriage Edith Carow, is related by blood or marriage with a host of social notables. She is a tall, distinguished woman, reserved in demeanor, yet gracious and entertaining.

This administration will resemble the Arthur term. The elite, it is said, will come to the capital when the period of official mourning terminates, and elaborate entertainments are counted on.

The Roosevelts have six children. Next to the first lady of the land, interest will center in Miss Alice Lee Roosevelt, the daughter of the President by his first wife (Miss Alice Lee, of Boston).

Miss Roosevelt made her first formal appearance at the inaugural ball and she captured all hearts by her beauty, grace and pleasing manners. She is tall and slender, with golden hair and dark blue eyes. From her mother she has inherited quite a fortune. She is counted on the maternal side with the Goddard family of Providence, R. I., and will in all probability receive legacies through these relatives. Mr. Roosevelt has two sisters and several brothers.

For the second time in the history of the Presidents one who has small children has come into the White House.

The Cleveland children were too young to attract attention. The young Roosevelts are from 18 to 34 years, and are all calculated to make their impression on the public mind. The eldest son, Theodore, Jr., is wonderfully like his father, even to the wearing of spectacles. He has the same smile and manner of carrying himself.

The official mourning will end on March 14, 1902, and this date falls after Saratoga Tuesday, the official social season will be allowed to lapse. Therefore, the New Year reception of 1903 will in all probability be the first formal gathering of the official social world at the White House.

This period of mourning is observed strictly. All stationery used at the White House is deeply bordered in black, as is also the stationery at the State Department. The other branches of the government will not observe this requirement. The President's visiting cards and the cards of the Cabinet will also be black bordered.

According to the etiquette which holds, Mrs. Roosevelt and her daughter, Miss Alice, will neither extend nor accept hospitality during this period of official mourning.

ROOSEVELT AND HANNA.
The first man to enter the Wilcox house, in Buffalo, on Saturday, after President Roosevelt had taken the oath of office, attracted almost as much attention as the new President. It was Senator Mark Hanna, the most intimate friend of the dead ruler. The meeting between Senator Hanna and the new President was cordial, though naturally solemn. The Senator did not look well, his face was pale and furrowed with gray lines. He leaned heavily on a stout cane.

President Roosevelt described Mr. Hanna before he had mounted the steps of the house and held out both hands. "How do you do, Senator. I am glad to see you," he said.

The lifelong friend of the dead President, holding out his right hand, looked steadily at the new national chief. "Mr. President," he said, "I wish you success and a prosperous administration; I trust that you will command me if I can be of service."

The two men, easily the two most interesting figures in the great tragedy, clasped hands for nearly a minute, but did not exchange another word.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will cure a Cough or Cold at once. Conquer Croup, Whooping Cough and Measle Cough without fail. Best for Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Grippe, Pneumonia, Consumption and Lung Affections. Gives quick, sure relief. Price 25c Sold by Richard Gibson and all druggists.

TO ACCOMMODATE those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhs, colds, the proprietors prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry out the secretions but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

Norris Silver, North Stratford, N. H.: "I purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure when suffering with a cough doctors told me was incurable. One bottle relieved me, the second and third almost cured. Today I am a well man. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.
